YANKEE-LAND FAIREST-LAND

= A Song of the Times =

Words and Music
by

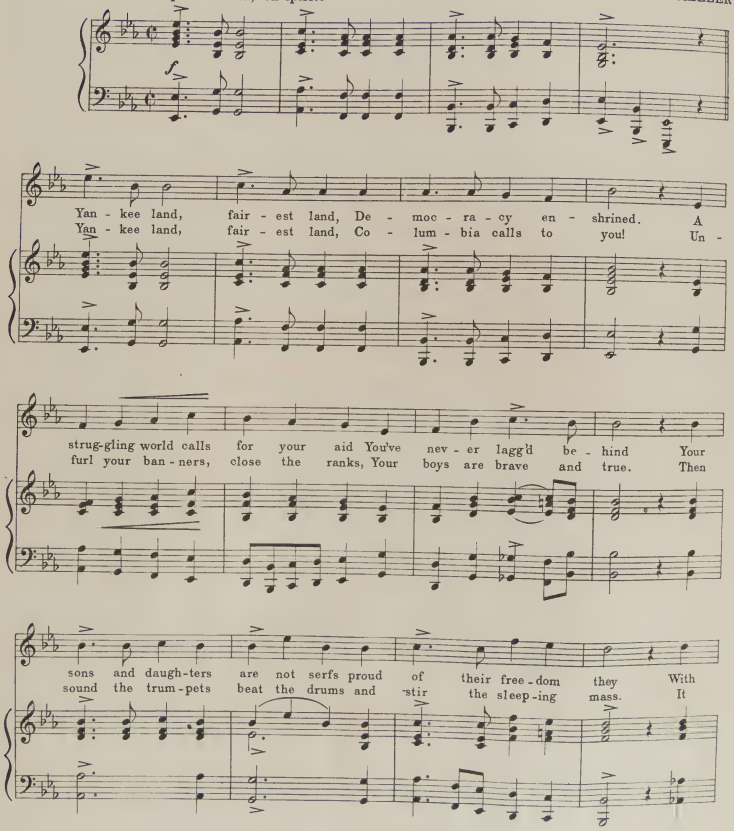
RUDOLPH SCHILLER

Charles W. Homeyer & Co.
132 Boylston St. Boston, Mass.

YANKEE LAND, FAIREST LAND

Words and Music by
RUDOLPH SCHILLER

Tempo di Marcia, con spirito



Yan - kee land, fair - est land, De - moc - ra - cy en - shrined. A Yan - kee land, fair - est land, Co - lum - bia calls to you! Un - strug-gling world calls for your aid You've nev - er lagg'd be - hind Your furl your ban - ners, close the ranks, Your boys are brave and true. Then sons and daugh-ters are not serfs proud of their free - dom they With sound the trum - pets beat the drums and stir the sleep - ing mass. It

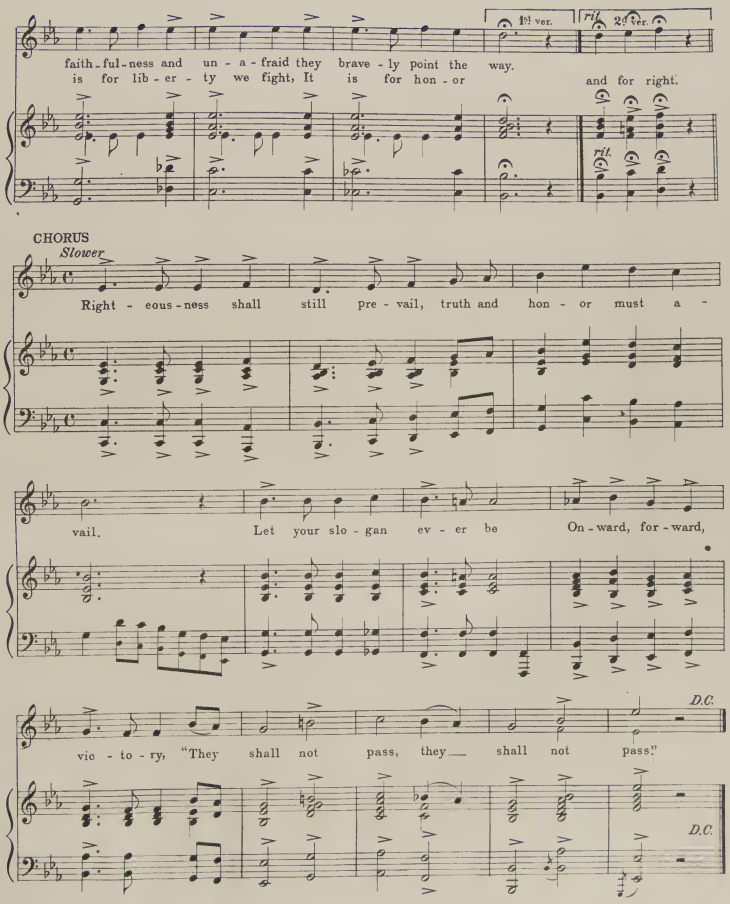
Copyright 1918 by Rudolph Schiller



1st ver.
rit.
2d ver.
faith - ful - ness and un - a - fraid they brave - ly point the way.
is for lib - er - ty we fight, It is for hon - or and for right.
rit.
CHORUS Slower
Right - eous - ness shall still pre - vail, truth and hon - or must a - vail. Let your slo - gan ev - er be On - ward, for - ward, D.C. vic - to - ry, "They shall not pass, they shall not pass!"
D.C.